

2011 Hillsboro Community Association's Friends of the Old Stone School Membership and Donation Form

The Hillsboro Community Association

Friends of the Old Stone School

We invite you to become a Friend of the Old Stone School by joining the Hillsboro Community Association (HCA)!

What is the HCA?

The HCA was formed in 1976 to save the Old Stone School, formerly the Locust Grove Academy, from destruction. For more than 35 years, the non-profit HCA has had the responsibility of preserving and maintaining the Old Stone School, where the HCA hosts community events such as our annual Independence Day celebration, the Christmas in Hillsboro Homes Tour, the annual holiday craft fair, haunted schoolhouse, and greens workshops. The Old Stone School is also available to rent for parties, events, and classes. Your tax-deductible fees and donations helps us continue our efforts to preserve this historic building! And, you can join or make a donation no matter where you live!

Support the HCA and be a Friend of the Old Stone School!

Your membership dues (only $15 a year) and donations support the HCA in our continued restoration and maintenance of this treasured historic building! Our goal this year is to raise $73,600 which will cover regular expenses associated with the Old Stone School, fireworks for our Independence Day celebration, and restoration work including HVAC, upgrading the electric system, installing a patio, and replacing the lights and fans in the auditorium.

Benefits of Becoming a Member of the HCA

Become a Friend of the Old Stone School by joining or renewing your membership to the HCA and by making a donation. Your tax-deductible dues and donations will help us in our efforts to restore the Old Stone School. Plus, HCA members are entitled to reduced rental rates, invitations to attend opening night performances of Run Rabbit Run Theatre productions at the Old Stone School free of charge, and other specials! It only takes a few minutes to complete this membership and donation form, and mail it with your tax-deductible check.

Please join us to celebrate Hillsboro's Old Stone School past and become a Friend of the Old Stone School to ensure its future!
